Letter to Dr. M. Greig regarding gift to the College Library

1 1925, May 11

Letter dictated by G.S. Stephenson M.D., The Manor House, Grimsby, to Dr M. Greig, R.C.S.E. accompanying an early seventeenth century herbal bound together with a portion of the Psalms, dated 1607, which he is donating to the College.

Stephenson reminisces about Spence, Lister, Turner, Christison and "other great lights of the early seventies of my own day" and expresses his pleasure at a walk around the museum, especially Greig's cranial section and "your beautiful slices of Encephalon". [The book is held in Library]
